

RANDY IS LOOKING FOR A NEW HOME

Randy is a purebred six year old German Shepherd looking for a new home through no fault of his own.

He has good basic obedience and knows sit, stay, inside/outside, lay down. He is ball obsessed and loves to chase and bring the ball back. He's also a good watchdog, but he'd rather just relax quietly with his family while they watch a movie.

Randy is toilet trained and is an inside dog whenever his owner is home. He doesn't cope very well if left alone for long periods. He's looking for an owner who is home at least some of the time during the week or who can take him to work with them.

Randy is very affectionate towards his family, but he needs careful introductions to people he doesn't know. It's the same when he meets new dogs. He can be anxious on first meeting, but is ok once he gets to know them. Out on a walk he will bark and pull if he sees another dog, but if he is allowed to get close, he just wants to say hello. He does sometimes go to the dog park, but he can find it a bit much, so quiet times are best.

On lead, Randy pulls at the beginning of a walk, but soon settles down if reminded. He would suit and active owner who has time to give him a good walk each day. Unfortunately, he's not getting that at the moment due to his owner's long work hours.

He is desexed, microchipped, vaccinated and has no hip or elbow problems. Randy does have Pannus, a chronic eye disease found most commonly in German Shepherds, but it is under control with daily eye drops. More info on Pannus is here <http://workingdogs.com/doc0087.htm>

If you're interested in Randy, please email his owner at markbjones81@yahoo.com and explain a bit about yourself, your experience with dogs and the home you would offer Randy. Please note that Randy is for sale and is not being given away.
